

Year 4/5 Take Away

Homework

These homework tasks are in addition to practising times-tables, spellings and reading at least once a week at home. Please support your child as much as possible at home.

Choose your homework from the menu below:

The Peri-ometer suggests the difficulty or challenge the homework may offer. Each week you must choose your task from the menu ensuring that at least one 'EXTRA HOT' task is completed over the half term!

Each of the homework tasks are worth the following rocket points:

History/DT: Create a Viking longboat out of recycled materials.	Science: Visit a farm, zoo or complete a nature walk. Create a fact-file about some of the animals/insects you observe.	Maths/Life skill: Can you tell the time? If not, ask an adult to work on this with you at home and share your new skills in the final week of half term.
Ethos: Think about this half term's Key Christian Value, thankfulness. Make a poster which shows all the ways you can be thankful to others.	DT: As we move from Summer to Autumn, think about what kind of desserts/snacks you will now be craving. Prepare one as a family and either write about the process or take pictures.	History: Research Viking shields. Create your own using collage materials or pencil crayons/felt tips.
Maths: Ask one of the adults in your class for a times-table booklet. Complete it at home and bring it in to show an adult.	English: Write a diary entries for your five favourite days from over the summer holidays. Try to include as much detail and as many pictures as you can.	Life skills: Make your bed and get your bag ready for school. Load the dishwasher or dry the pots after your family have eaten and washed up. Put your dirty clothes into the laundry basket and not on your bedroom floor. Parent\carer to write in your homework book once you have done these things a number of times.
English: Write a letter to a friend about the importance of reading at home. Try to include at least four reasons.	Free choice! Create a piece of work which shows all you remember from last year. This can be presented however you like.	Oracy: Play a board game as a family. Talk about how it feels to be a winner or a loser. Take a photo and send it in to the school office/stick it in your homework book.

Remember, your homework should be presented to the highest standard and classroom expectations apply. You may be asked to repeat homework that is poorly completed. This is to ensure you push yourself to be the best you can be!
